WM. G. IEWIN & CO., Agents. STEAMSHIP COM-

TOBER 22nd.

n Fr LENDID S

BER. C NOLULU ABOUT usange, app ipment : o of Cha ear the S

NEY V E SPLENT 1 OF COBB. LEAVE ! IR ABO ME

CINT ikelike wi hing at L raihae, Le will touc ach Sunda nic :

e 22d D. N FF no.] HON

RNEF

For

KRSON, STLE, of Outs Codego

C. ADVERTISER---SUPPLEMENT.

HONOLULU, HAWAHAN ISLANDS, SATURDAY, OCTOBER 21, 1882.

SUPREME COURT. CRIMINAL CASES,

Monday, October 2d. Before His Honor the CHIEF JUSTICE,

Rex vs G. B. Kalaaukane; adultery. Appeal from the Police Justice of Honolulu. His Ex. E. Preston, Attorney-General, for the Crown, Mr. Russell and Kalaaukane for the defence. The testimony having been heard, Mr. Kalaaukane addressed the jury in his own defence. His speech, which was fluent and earnest, occupi-d 35 minutes in delivery, but failed to carry conviction to the minds of the jurymen. Mr. Preston made a forcible reply and His Honor summed up at great length. After a few minutes' terest from April 22d. 1880. retirement the jury brought in a verdict of was a fine of $100 and costs. Emmeline Giles vs Henry Giles; libel for divorce on the ground of desertion. Mr. Hartwell defendant. 'The case having been heard judgappeared for the libellant. The Marshal made ment was reserved till the following day. return to the summons that he was unable to C. L. Hopkins vs Chung Wa et. al.; ejectment. find defendant within the Kingdom. The case Mr. W. k. Castle for plaintiff, Mr. A. S. Hartwas therefore, on motion, continued till next well for defendant-jury waived. In this case term, and the statutory advertisement of the Mr. Hartwell contended that notwithstanding summons was ordered.

pleaded guilty and said that, being drunk he did not know what he was doing at the time. His birth of Hopkins there was any disturbance of honor sentenced him to be imprisoned at hard the relations between Mainae and his wife, the Rex vs Kanaso; burglary. The Attorney-Gen- favor of his legitimacy. The case was partly eral for the Crown, Mr. Austin Whiting for the heard, and further proceedings adjourned until defendant. After a few minutes' retirement the a convenient opportunity for taking it up occurs. jury gave a unanimous verdict of guilty. Kanaeo was sentenced to nine months' imprisonment at hard labor and to pay a fine of $20, with costs taxed at $42.35.

Tuesday, October 3d.

The Attorney-General for the Crown. Mr. Rus- ant. This was an important case, involving sell for defendants. The case having been heard questions of sufficient demand, and the right of the jury retired at a quarter to three p.m., and plaintiff to claim three-fourths of the sum due to did not bring up a verdict till half-past five him in American gold. The jury retired at when, by a majority of nine to three they de. twenty minutes to five P. M. About half an hour clared the prisoners guilty. They were each sentenced to imprisonment at hard labor for and W. O. Smith for the defendant. After the matter, but finally about 3.30 A. M., finding them rain. case had been heard Mr. Castle asked His Hon-still divided 7 to 5, he discharged them. or to give certain instructions to the jury, which His Honor declined to do. Mr. Castle excepted to this ruling The jury returned a verdict of guilty; three jurors dissenting. Mr. Castle then excepted to so much of His Honor's charge as ant. A verdict for the defendant was returned. stated that, "the smoking of opium is not explicitly an offence, but its possession is so by our statutes, so I charge you that if you believe from the evidence that any quantity of opium was found in the possession of the defendant for the purpose of smoking, you will convict the de-fendant." The learned counsel also excepted to the verdict as against law and evidence. His Honor confirmed the sentence appealed against. Our object is to offer the fullest opportunity for a variety viz: A fine of $50 and one month's imprisonment: costs $57.85.

Wednesday, October 11th.

Rex vs Kum Sang alias Ah Pau; larceny of money. The Attorney-General for the Crowto show that the charge was a conspiracy to defraud Kum Sang of money which had been given to him. The jury did not believe in the wife and daughters, and rocking is with them a wife and daughters, and rocking is with them a wife and daughters, and rocking is with them a wife and daughters, and rocking is with them a day antage in its favor, is rather accepted as a day antage in its favor, is rather accepted as a prime to the prisoner and wife and serious to the prisoner and th promptly returned a unanimous verdiet of variety of rocker that is built on such a prin-necessity, than as a solution. Theterrible diguilty. He was septenced to three years' imprisonment and a fire of $25.

CVIL CAUSES. Wedresday, October 4th,

Kaupono et il vs Nioho; ejectment, Mr. Hartwell for plaintiffs, Mr. Davidson for defendant. This was the second trial of the case, and jurors dissenting, Thursday, October 5th.

Kaolulo et al. vs Kapono; ejectment. Mr. tonse. After hearing the case, the Court displayed a continuous the ladies of my household were since half a century for the "hour of God" to other even the ladies of my household were since half a century for the "hour of God" to Castle for plaintiffs, Mr. Bickerton for the derected the jury to find a verdict for the defend-ant on the ground that although the lease pro-duced by plaintiff contained a covenant that the lessee would take good care of the premises durlessee would take good care of the premises during its term, it was not stipulated in the document that failure to fulfill this covenant should be followed by a forfeiture of the least a retired life at Chantilly amidst his books, his objects of any injury done to the property or accruing rounding me with the rock aster, and one faster through defendant's negligance might be made rock slowly, and one a little find so, and so through defendant's negligance might be made the ground of an action for damages, but there could not be forfeiture except under an express could not be forfeiture except under an express stipulation. His Honor further said that the supulation. His nonor further said that the plan of entertainment. In conc. and dine lease was not forfeited through non-payment of Domino, I would ask, will you com guert. rent as there was no evidence that the rent last with me, and my family? fallen due had ever been asked for by plaintiff. A verdict was returned accordingly. Mr. Castle

Friday, October 6th.

Alohikea k vs Beniamina ; ejectment, Mr. Bickerton for plaintiff, Mr. A. S. Hartwell for demade by a party out of possession is invalid. The Court ruled against the objection, and Mr. Hartwell excepted to the ruling. About 9 P. M., the jury, being unable to agree upon a verdict after between four and five hours consideration. were discharged.

gave his decision as to the defendant's plea of have selected a poor tool in "Observer." estoppel, overruling it. Mr. Dole, counsel for Briggs excepted to the ruling.

Tuesday, October 10th.

guilty, three jurors dissenting. The sentence sell and Mr. Holokahiki for plaintiffs Mr. Dole for shouldn't they have them."

that the mother of Hopkins was married to Mai-Rex vs Paiataia; maiming. The prisoner nae from whom he claims to inherit, and notwithstanding that neither before nor after the should override the usual presumption of law in > Mary Hoeha. His Honor gave judgment in shoulder. this case for the defendant; with costs. Thursday, October 12th.

J. Lazarus vs G. Trousseau; assumpsit. J. thought they had not given sufficient consideration to the case and requested them to retire again. This report of disagreement was re-Rex vs Ah Fong als. Ah Fawn; having opium in peated about 8 p. M., and again about 10 p. M. possesion. Appeal from Police Court. The Attorney-General for the Crown, Mr. W. R. Castle tions and sent them back to further consider the Friday, October 13th.

J. W. McGuire vs Robert Briggs; assumpsit, This of popular discussion and inquisor.

To all inquirers and inquisor to furnish information of the control of the would put a stop to the practice, but I was mis- once lukewarm, have become unbelievers. ant. This was the set. At 8.15 P. M., taken; the pussy was pitied, but when the The promised serious reforms of the bench, first, Beach, Laycock, and Trickett finishing in the jury after a retirement of two hous and a rocking chair was alluded to by me as an engine the administration, age the army even, the exelong tail.

the Cnishment of the rocking-chair, followed by a forfeiture of the lessee's holding. him. We would gather and one would who might have imitated his predecessors in a honor," replied the sententious police-the Estate of Hana deceased. Assumpsit; Mr. Hatch for plaintiff, Mr. Davidson for defenda t. A verdict for the plaintiff for $34 was returned.

A verdict for the plaintiff for $34 was returned.

Exiden October 6th H. Kepohoni vs Wahilani k, Administrator of day's issue, signed "Observer," stating that he learn that discord, and not peace, reigned; while those who feel interested in the liquor traffic, for the dollars it may bring them, would, no doubt laugh at the proposet of small would, and some believes that the Spar Corol will consider the proposet of small would, and some believes that the Spar Corol will consider the proposet of small would, and some believes that the Spar Corol will consider the proposet of small would, and some believes that the Spar Corol will consider the proposet of small would. tiffs' counsel was a deed from Pauelua to Alohikea. Mr. Hartwell objected to this on the ground that the evidence had shown that Pauelua was never "in possession" of the land and a deed
never "in possession" of the land and a deed
never "in possession" of the land and a deed
never "in possession" of the land and a deed
never "in possession" of the land and a deed
never "in possession" of the land and a deed
never "in possession" of the land and a deed
never "in possession" of the land and a deed
never "in possession" of the land and a deed
never "in possession" of the land and a deed
never "in possession" of the land and a deed
never "in possession" of the land and a deed
never "in possession" of the land and a deed
never "in possession" of the land and a deed
never "in possession" of the land and a deed
never "in possession" of the land and a deed
never "in possession" of the land and a deed
never "in possession" of the land and a deed
never "in possession" of the land and a deed
never "in possession" of the land and a deed
never "in possession" of the land and a deed
never "in possession" of the land and a deed
never "in possession" of the land and a deed
never "in possession" of the land and a deed
never "in possession" of the land and a deed
never "in possession" of the land and a deed
never "in possession" of the land and a deed
never "in possession" of the land and a deed
never "in possession" of the land and a deed
never "in possession" of the land and a deed
never "in possession" of the land and a deed
never "in possession" of the land and a deed
never "in possession" of the land and a deed
never "in possession" of the land and a deed
never "in possession" of the land and a deed
never "in possession" of the land and a deed
never "in possession" of the land and a deed
never "in possession" of the land and a deed
never "in possession" of the land and a deed
never "in possession" of the land and a deed
never "in possession" of the land and a deed
never "in possession" of the land and a deed never "in pos

Chief of Algeroba Lodge, I. O. G. T.

ton for defendants. Plaintiff claimed half the be too strongly condemned. In the language of roll back Mussulman fanaticism. These ends land. The jury returned a verdict in his favor for seven forty-eighths only, to which Mr. Bickerton excepted as contrary to law and evidence.

Hoolehookano, administrator of the estate of S. Aikanaka, vs W. H. Daniels, assumpsit. Mr. Davidson for plaintiff. Mr. Bickerton for de be too strongly condemned. In the language of roll back Mussulman fanaticism. These ends are as much so in the interests of France as of the subject of flags but of steamships—"no the subject of flags but of steamship Davidson for plaintiff, Mr. Bickerton for de- should admit anything into its columns that was resolved to keep clear of entangling alliances fendant. Notes of the defendant in favor of likely to afford subject for comment is to be Aikanaka, and of the latter in favor of defend-deplored. And when it "puts its foot in it," ant were produced. The jury decided that (by "it" is undoubtedly meant the coronation), Daniels had s'ill $103 to pay with $22.83 in- and ventures to mention the fact of the President of the United States having a flag without severely condemning such goings on, I can only -I quote again-" surmise what else is coming.

Island Notes.

In the case of Mr. Palohau, it appears that the report of his being arrested for contempt of court is not correct. He did not attend when summoned that England wastes men and money in Egypt, about some administration, and Judge Hardy issued an order calling upon him to appear and show cause why he should not be fined for con-tampt. Mr. Palohau appeared in reply to the or-der and made such explanations as to the cause of show cause why he should not be fined for conlabor for nine months and to pay a fine of one physical fact of Hopkins being a half white his absence on the former occasion as entirely sat-

> He has recovered so far as to be about again, though which of course does not displease the French, Wednesday, October 11th.
>
> Wednesday, October 11th.
>
> He has recovered so far as to be about again, though which of course does not displease the French, who never observed the anniversary of any of suffering from some severe bruises of the arm and peal from the District Court of Koolaupoko. Russell for plaintiff, R. F. Bickerton for defendbeen warned of the folly of fishing by this method sians have the fixed idea, that the French only in a very pointed manner by being brought up be-fore a magistrate for it. and being fined $25. Those who sell the dangerous explosive to such men ought to be punished more severely than the buy-H.R.H. Princess Likelike and H.M. Queen Dowager Emma, both ascended to the summit of Mau-

> Majesty arrived at Mr. Sam Parker's whilst the hospitable roof of their entertainers. Hamakua people are reported to be praying for be obtained.

nakea during their recent visits to Hawaii. Her

Last week Kilauea was unusually active. This is a good time for tourists to visit Madame Pele.

Maui Items.

Paus, September 7th.

at The cwelfth anniversary of the Third Republing attitude, if not also by her impudence.

Two points have been cleared up. over backwards-apparently. My family catch instability of its cabinets, the absence of praction and rock. I have tried introducing a b ok cal and defined programmes, the want of states- will be interested to hear that an old Australian suddenly under one of the rockers while it was men who can command respect at home and champion oarsman has come to the front again, in full motion, but found that only afforded tem- influence abroad, the next to the breakdown of and once more beaten men who succeeded in porary relief, and injured the book. I did hope parliamentary institutions—all these causes have taking his laurels from him. At the Punch re-half returned a verdict for the plaintiffs, three of cruelty, the cat was blamed for having such a cutive and the election machinery remain about hand, but it may be remarked that the Trickett what they have been. Rivalries have supplanted named is probably William and not the brother patriotism, and personalities reforms. Yet the who has been trying to wrest the championthought 'twould be of help to me in advocating Third Republic has been fortune's pet. Its ship from Hanlan. monarchal enemies are powerless. The Comte The effect t at it did have was this: The de Chambord is still waiting as he has been exercise a fatal influence on the prospects of the republic. They have alrea y secured the isola-

Ma. Editor,—A paragraph appeared in Fri-plete obliteration in the East. It is from this class of eccentric "politicians sufficiently momentous to occupy your valuable asy going souls to escape being teased, space. The judicious would doubtless grieve to his facts are described with the wolves. on me. I have ever enjoyed, and still en- of the route in France that make a still enjoy, the confidence of—as far as I know— ed. The parties in France that make capital by every member. I am still Chief, and hope to stumping on stamping o Hartwell excepted to the ruling. About 9 p. M., the jury, being unable to agree upon a verdict after between four and five hours consideration, were discharged.

Monday, October 9th.

McGuire vs Briggs. In this case His Honor ave his, decision as to the defendant's plea of a selected a poor tool in "Observer."

May still Chief, and hope to stumping on sie bone; they cannot touch it the dog and the vould like to prevent others from themselves and it to stand by their demands at doing so. Invite! French sailed away; solicit-stand convicted of a desire—by his contemptible masked pop-gun—to injure a disinterested and noble moral cause. I guess his employers have selected a poor tool in "Observer."

Meand respectively member. I am still Chief, and hope to stumping on sie bone; they cannot touch it the dog and the vould like to prevent others from themselves and it to stand by their demands at doing so. Invite! French sailed away; solicit-stand convicted of a desire—by his contemptible masked pop-gun—to injure a disinterested and noble moral cause. I guess his employers have selected a poor tool in "Observer."

MeGuire vs Briggs. In this case His Honor and noble moral cause. I guess his employers have selected a poor tool in "Observer." European power which refused to bend the knee to Bismarck and so checked him at the Con-

Monday, October 9th.

Mr. Edikapeka, W., et. al. vs. the Ookala Sugar the Friend in admitting to its columns an article reunion. she has gone single-handed into Company; ejectment. Mr. W. R. Castle for plaintiff, the Attorney-General and Mr. Bicker-and approve of—the Presidential flag—cannot influence and platonic claims on the Nile, and being indifferent alike to their depreciation or their praise, which creates the soreness among the French rather than the revival of medieva jealorsy. England has the will to do and the soul to dare. France has neither-at present at Makakane vs W. E. H. Deverill, guardian of Mary Hoeha ejectment—jury waived. Mr. Rus-The Dutch, like the Swiss, are famous for their public meetings or professional conferences, where matters are profoundly discussed, without disturbance, and ever followed by solid eating and drinking. Amsterdam journals conwhen such will be required to keep the Zulus and Boers in the way they should go. Letters forth prevail, but that the Sultan and England Mr. Lorrin Andrews met with quite a severe accident last week, he having fallen from his horse on a rough wood-road, and when found was insensible. their victories. At the review, it was not the On Saturday last a native at Paia, Maui, who perfect maneuvering of the troops which excited was fishing with giant powder blew off his right attention, but rather the aged Emperor—85 hand and so injured his eyes that it is expected years old, sitting two hours on horseback under a pelting rain, like a sub-licutenant. The Pruswait the occasion to fall on them, and that Gambetta works heaven and earth to create the opportunity. The Prussians desire to consolidate their conquests, not to make new ones; they have enough of care with the Schleswig Danes the Posen Poles, and the Alsatians, though Courland and Lithuania sigh to become German. Many French now extend their summer tour as Princess was staying there; and it is reported that they had a "good time" together under the of the capital of a modern state; that it is not melancholy, and where an excellent dinner can The prognostics of military critics here on the conduct of the Egyptian campaign are being verified; the contingent they laid down as necessary, was 40,000; they accuse Sir G. Wolseley of underrating thee nemy, and of rashness, in pushing forward, when unable for want of supplies, to follow up his blows; he had no right to count We had a nice rain last night; everybody has gone to Honolulu to attend the Planters' meeting next Monday. Dr. Bailey had his gig pretty badly to have been so that the planters of the plante upon Arabi leaving the railway and the canal in-What the People Say.

We invite expressions of opinion from the public upon all subjects of general interest for insertion under this beauthenticated by the name of the writer as a guater and each of the Advantages. Such communications should be authenticated by the name of the writer as a guatrantee of good faith, but not necessarily for publication.

Bailey had his gig pretty badly next Monday. Dr. Bailey had his gig pretty against Austria and Russia. The Euphrates valley is to be left to the chapter of accidents As for Italy, she has disgusted every one by her

Two points have been cleared up. Arabi

BOATING. -Those who are fond of boat-racing when the pet cat's tail was rocked upon that made once earnest friends lukewarm, and the gatta on the Parramatta River the other day, in the match of the day, "Michael Rush came in Miscellaneous Items.

An old and famous composer.-A dull

"What is this man charged with?"

Said his prudent friend-" Why $5 for a carriage is extravagance. Go in a tram-car or take a cab." And the extravagant replied-"I can't. You see tion of France in Europe, and her next to com- the lady I am going to take isn't my

> A literary man who had published a book, was observed to be very downcast. "What is the matter?" said a friend, "you look all broken up." "No wonder," was the answer, "I've been

e secur on ac pion of pinion he first deide of rew atte when le sea that and ge

he the

Capti in Mare

captain

any bla

this has essel at og was ed, and str not made f er again have Who pays t from :- In one of daimed for a big oubt that is so; ere the smallest spondents sho 14th instant, th e fugleman of exempt as ol and poll and a half e same tim the peoples nent plant ng a large btedness taxpaper N ters' Lab vestere asiness v ceting W he reply ty shortl sine die.

ed at Hi

sday, and Papalko steamer to infor nd this one by o ter gentle ild be follo ently wante case the Co tracts did n latter claimin employer's e. whilst the E. Commission persuaded to the quarter their which they on Saturride back i taking. Th related, at accommo solf it out of the own, seekappears to were giving ka's sailors. he night and let go. The Oabu in manalo His Excellency investigation Royal pa iknap's polite-e him on board tation, w of the lo e intruder given not tally at all ie evidence from wreaths ficer was station-Mr. Boy 1, there being fear do himself harm. Oadt were both ding to orders they held at the Armory aupon a proper cole-arthday. Hon. Frank nan, Mr. J. U. Kawaiy. Secretaries; and Mr. A Committee of Thirowing geutlemen: H. der, Capt. Tripp, C. O.

T. Gulick, C. H. Clark.

uli, J. Keau, K. D. Kaha-V. P. Wood, were chosen to frame a programme the STOCK MUST BE Bear Mant, on or be-the WAIKAPU COMMONS, laland of Mant, on or be-the November 1st, 18-2. All trespassers found on said Com-ter November 1st, 18-2, will be dealt with and impounded

Interior Office, Oct. 10th, 1882

It has pleased His Majesty the King to appoint the most base metal into the least quantity of the most base metal into the time came is Majesty the King to appoint the most base metal into the least quantity of that used it himself for the had an account the most base metal into the least quantity of the most base metal into the least quantity